EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS FOR CORRECTIONAL OFFICERS

Course 085

40 Hours
May 3–14, 2027
Monday–Friday, 8 a.m.–noon
Criminal Justice Academy, Room 219

Corrections professionals must be prepared to respond effectively to emergencies that threaten the safety and security of correctional facilities. This 40-hour course provides correctional officers with the knowledge and practical skills necessary to prepare for, manage, and recover from a variety of emergency situations. Topics include emergency operations planning, incident command principles, evacuation procedures, communication during critical incidents, disaster response, facility security during emergencies, continuity of operations, and strategies for responding to both natural and human-caused disasters.

For more information, contact:

Dawn Trevino, 863-784-7282, dawn.trevino@southflorida.edu

Criminal Justice Academy
600 West College Drive, Avon Park, FL 33825