BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES

Hodges University's Bachelor of Science Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies (IDS) is now being offered at a discount of $100 per credit hour to employees of South Florida Community College in Avon Park. The IDS degree is a unique program of study, specifically designed to prepare graduates for a variety of career options. From careers in law, education, human resources, medicine, and social services, to sales, marketing, technology and management, the IDS graduate will have the integrated skills needed to succeed in a complex and borderless world. The IDS program is delivered in an accelerated "wheel" format, where a grouping of three courses is offered over fifteen weeks. These evening classes meet just once per week.

In addition, there are multiple benefits to students who attend Hodges University, including:

FRAG (Florida Resident Access Grant)

Eligible students may qualify for a grant provided by the state of Florida.

FLEXIBLE SCHEDULING

Attend classes just one night per week from 6:00 p.m. to 9:50 p.m.
