

AUTHORIZATION TO USE TITLE IV FUNDS

Federal Regulations require South Florida State College to use Title IV funds (Pell, Loans, SEOG) to pay your tuition and fees. South Florida State College must obtain authorization from you before performing the following:

- You have the right to use Federal Financial Aid funds to pay for non-allowable charges, such as, but not limited to book charges, dorm rent, library and parking fines.
- You have the right to apply Federal Financial Aid funds to prior year charges, not to exceed $200.
- You also have the right to request that South Florida State College hold your Federal Financial Aid excess funds for future term charges.

I authorize South Florida State College, over my full course of studies, to apply my Federal Title IV Funds as indicated below.

NOTE: Please answer all items by placing an "X" in the appropriate box.

YES	NO
		To apply all Title IV funds (Pell, Loans, and SEOG) to prior year charges, not to exceed $200.

YES	NO
		To hold any excess credit balance created as a result of receiving Title IV funds (refund check due to student after tuition and fees are paid) to help pay for a subsequent semester within an academic year.

YES	NO
		Title IV funds (Pell, Loans, and SEOG) are always applied to billable tuition and fees. I grant SFSC permission to apply my Title IV funds for other expenses (i.e. lab fees, fines, or other charges that may appear on my Student Account). Excess funds after all charges will be refunded to the student.

I understand that I may rescind or modify this authorization by submitting an updated Authorization Form at any time to South Florida State College's Financial Aid Office.
