

ATI TEAS and Proctorio

What to expect when taking your ATI TEAS exam

ATI TEAS and Proctorio

- When to contact the Nursing Department
- Things to remember
- Before scheduling your exam
- How to schedule your exam
- Exam Day
- Review

Make sure that you stay in contact with the Nursing Department for the following:

- Nursing programs you are interested in
- When are the deadlines for the programs
- Other programs and score questions
- Nursing Department phone number: 863-784-7225

Things to remember:

- Exams are to be paid on test day, the cashiers will not accept any payments before your test date
- Candidates must visit ATItesting.com to create an account
 - Your exam will be given through your ATI account
- All technical issues need to be handled by ATI's customer service, their number is 1-800-667-7531

Before scheduling your exam:

- Be advised there is a 90-day retake policy
 - Please take into account the 90-day policy when rescheduling
- The exam is given online using your personal laptop or home computer
- Every candidate must have an ATI account to take the TEAS test

How to Scheduling your exam:

- Go to <https://www2.registerblast.com/southflorida/Exam/List> to schedule your exam.
 - This is found on the South Florida State College main webpage
 - Select Testing Center by using the dropdown tabs
 - Click on the Schedule Test button on the webpage
- Each candidate will receive an email the day before the exam with instructions.

Exam Day:

- Proctors are available at 9 a.m. to start the exam
- Pay the cashier by calling 863-784-7258
- Log into your ATI account
- Call the Testing Center with the receipt number
 - They will give you a new test code

Review:

- Exams are to be paid on test day; the cashiers will not accept any payments before exam day
- All technical issues needs to be handled by ATI's customer service, their number is 1-800-667-7531
- Your are being recorded during your exam
- You must show a photo ID
- Tear up all scratch paper in front of the camera