1. Showed several PowerPoint slides of college celebrations that occurred over the last 4 weeks including Student Awards, Athletic Awards, TRIO Awards, Dental Hygiene Pinning, and an EMT Celebration.
2. The SFSC Foundation Gala had a net income of $33,000 and is eligible to be matched.
3. Stated that Dr. Revell had been honored at the Athletic Awards event and the most recent Nursing pinning event.
4. Spring Commencement was live-streamed on the college’s website and received over 1,000 hits. He thanked Dr. Wise and the IT department for their assistance.
5. A survey conducted and analyzed by Ohio State University’s Center for Higher Education Enterprise (CHEE) named SFSC one of the most promising places to work in community colleges in 2015 reported by the National Institute for Staff and Organizational Development (NISOD). This is NISOD’s first national study regarding diverse issues in higher education. SFSC earned a grade of A for its general diversity policies and human resources practices. The college joined 15 other colleges receiving top marks for the extent to which diversity and inclusiveness imbue their administration, work environments, and hiring practices. Only one other college of the 28-member Florida College System, Tallahassee Community College, scored high enough to gain a spot on the list.
6. Reviewed FTE (fundable) for the 2007-2015 reporting years showing an income of 2.4% in 2014-15.
7. The college’s Testing Center received certification through the National College Testing Association.
8. The fire tower is near completion.
9. Stated that the college’s Criminal Justice Program received a perfect audit from FDLE which is good for two years. Also, the facilities were recertified by FDLE for five years.
10. The Florida Legislature will hold a Special Session June 1-20 to pass a budget. Last year, SFSC received $88,000 more than the previous year.
12. Vice President Little gave a budget development update.
15. Announced new FCS Chancellor, Madeline Pumariega.
