Dependency Override Information

The Department of Education, determines a student's status as dependent or independent by the answers the student provides on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

The following information covers the procedure that is applied to determine a student's eligibility for a "Dependency Override". A Financial Aid Administrator will review the student's appeal by examining the supporting documentation provided by the student, and based on their professional judgment, will either approve or deny the student's request. The student will be notified in writing of the decision.

Criteria for Independence

If a student does not meet the criteria below, a Dependency Override must be approved to be considered an independent student.

1. Is 24 years of age or older by December 31 of the award year
2. Is an orphan or ward of the court or was a ward of the court until the individual reached the age of 18
3. Is a veteran of the Armed Forces of the United States
4. Is a graduate or professional student
5. Is a married individual
6. Has legal dependents other than a spouse

Considered Circumstances

The following are some examples of conditions that could warrant a Dependency Override:

1. Homelessness or at Risk of Homelessness
2. Parental drug use
3. Parental medical incapacity
4. Physical or emotional abuse
5. Severe estrangement from parents
6. Parental incarceration

Circumstances NOT Considered

By federal law, the following conditions DO NOT warrant a Dependency Override:

1. Parents refuse to provide information on the FAFSA application or for verification
2. Parents do not claim student as dependent for income tax purposes
3. Parents unwilling or unable to contribute to student's education
4. Student demonstrates self-sufficiency
5. Student reluctant to request the income information from parents
6. Student does not wish to communicate with parents

Notes

- Student submitting a Dependency Override must have a 2021-2022 FAFSA on file.
- Dependency Override decisions made by the SFSC Financial Aid Office are final and are not appealable.
- SFSC does not accept Dependency Overrides from other institutions.
